

FABLED CITY: Toronto: 175 years; One Great Story with Jazz

Lit City: Toronto Through the Eyes of Authors and Artists

An exhibit at The Market Gallery in celebration of Toronto's 175th birthday, pairs passages from historic and contemporary literary works about Toronto with pieces from the City's extensive art collection. The exhibit is on display from March 7 to June 13, 2009.

Saturday, March 28, 2009

11:00 am - 12:00 pm

featuring
storyteller Jim Blake
and musicians Lina Allemano,
Rob Clutton and Tim Posgate

Free Admission - Please RSVP
as seating is limited.

Over one hundred and seventy-five years ago the town of York became incorporated as the city of Toronto. Join Storyteller Jim Blake as he spins a compelling story of Toronto inspired by these works of visual artists and writers and accompanied by a jazz soundscape created and performed by Lina Allemano (Trumpet), Rob Clutton (Bass) and Tim Posgate (Guitar and Banjo).

The Market Gallery
95 Front St. East
South St. Lawrence Market

The Market Gallery is a program of Toronto Culture and presents changing exhibitions dedicated to Toronto's art, culture, history and offers educational programs for school groups and adults. Located in Toronto's oldest neighbourhood, the main gallery occupies the 19th century city council chamber which is all that remains from the City Hall that stood on this site from 1845 -1899.

For more information and to RSVP:

416-392-7604 marketgallery@toronto.ca

www.toronto.ca/culture/events.htm

for a listing of all Toronto: Fabled City events

www.storytellingtoronto.org

for full listings of the Toronto Festival of Storytelling

 TORONTO Culture